As members of his three-fourths interests in the Advocate he named Lon V. Stevens and John A. Rich. His income from his interest in the Advocate is to be given to the three Missouri conferences of the Methodist church. Miss Lena Garrett of Sumner, proprietor of the Merchants hotel was upset in an auto which ran down the bank of the river between Brunswick and Triplett last week and one arm was badly mashed. A stump held up one side of the overturned machine and saved the occupants from being more seriously crushed.

Church Spire Burned

The St. Boniface catholic church at Brunswick was struck by lightning during the storm of last week and the belfry and church damaged to the extent of about $800. The spire, extending 110 feet above the ground was a mass of flames when struck and the remainder of the church was saved by a metal floor of the belfry.

Guin, Whitley, Ala., writes, "I had measles and got caught out in the rain, and it settled in my stomach and bowels. Quite a number of our people attended the chautauqua at Keytesville and report an excellent program.

Mrs. Lora Watson and husband of Cairo, Ill. visited the former's mother Mrs. C. W. Shoemaker last week. Mr. Watson will make a more extended visit.

The worst storm that has visited this part of the county for many years dropped down upon this section last Thursday night, several buildings were blown down and timber and fruit trees badly torn to pieces while corn in places was seriously damaged.

Jno. E. Chrane and family started last Saturday in their new Ford car for a tour throughout western Missouri and Kansas the trip will include Kansas City, Gallatin and many points in Kansas. They will be gone about two weeks.

Some good keen betting has been going on here and it is a cinch somebody is going to lose.

Leroy Cheek and family of Oklahoma visited at the home of L. A. Embree last week.

Marvin Callahan and family late of Huntsville and Mrs. Effie Miller and son of Hannibal are visiting their parents John Callahan and wife.

Mrs. B. F. Ford and daughter Mary of Coffeyville Kansas are visiting relatives in this locality.

M. S. Walther and A. L. Friesz of Keytesville were here Saturday night visiting the Odd Fellows.

There is a wedding on tap in this neighborhood and maybe two of them, at least we are informed there will be a twain after Sunday named McAdam.

The Government Lost

The government may be doing a fine job of reventment work along the Missouri at DeWitt but they will have to do it without the assistance of two of Keytesville's boys who went there a week ago and then, after two and a half days of labor refused to permit the government to work them any longer. The boys were Shannon Wayland and Noel Walther. They went to work the first of last week and stuck two and a half days and beat it for home. They were put on the rock pile and had to handle rough stones. This got tiresome and monotonous as the weather was hot and they had to work in a place where the electric fans did not beat with sufficient regularity and persistence to add anything to the coolness of the atmosphere. Thus, the U. S. Government lost two mighty promising young men.

Miss Mildred Lenhoff.

Miss Mildred Lenhoff, aged 22 years, a sufferer of chronic epilepsy died at the home of her parents at the edge of Salisbury Wednesday night of last week after a brief illness. Her parents, two sisters and a brother survive her death. The funeral was held at M. E. church Friday afternoon at one o'clock.

Operate Water Trains

The Wabash has started the water trains again on the west end. The employment of these trains is due to the scarcity of water in the lake at Moberly and the water is needed for the shops and trains. The nearest source of water is the Chariton river or the Musselfork and the pumping plant at the Musselfork is used. The water trains were in use last year. As soon as the lake gets a supply of water from a good rain or two the roads expects to be able to cancel these trains.

Tramps Want Food

Chillicothe has been overrun with tramps. A bunch of five of them tried to make a woman cook them a meal. She got to the telephone and notified the police an officer arriving in time to save the bacon and eggs. The hoboes fled and the officer emptied his revolver in their direction with the usual unsatisfactory results.
